Prop 42 gets nod from retired judge

By Rupert Howell

BATESVILLE – Retired Mississippi Supreme Court Justice and South Panola football play-by-play announcer George C. Carlson publicly threw his support behind Proposition 42 in a statewide radio broadcast Monday morning on the Paul Gallo show on Mississippi Supertalk radio.

Proposition 42 is a ballot initiative for a school funding formula placed on the November ballot through a statewide petition process.

Carlson also denounced the state legislature for adding an alternative amendment to the November ballot stating, "I think the issue was to confuse voters."
